PURSUANT TO
28 U.S.C. SECTION 2241

This packet is federal prisoners's claims when 28 USC § 2255 does not provide adequate relief or from state pretrial detainees attacking the legality of their custody. This packet may also be used for claims attacking execution of sentence, computation of sentence or credits, or determinations regarding parole. Please note the following before using this packet of forms:

- ★ Do NOT use this packet to file a 28 U.S.C. Section 2254 petition. If your claims regarding the legality or duration of confinement due to a sentence imposed by the State court system, a separate packet is available for that purpose. The Clerk of Court can send you a copy upon request (see address listed on page two), or one should be available in the law library of your institution.
- ★ Do NOT use this packet to file a 42 U.S.C. Section 1983 civil action. A 42 U.S.C. Section 1983 civil action is defined as an action against a person who has acted under color of state law (as a state official or employee) to deprive a person of rights secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States. Civil rights suits filed by incarcerated individuals generally involve conditions of confinement. A separate packet is available for that purpose. The Clerk of Court can send you a copy upon request (see address listed on page two), or one should be available in the law library of your institution.
